REQUEST TO NOMINATE GHANA'S KENTE ON THE UNESCO LIST OF INTANGIBLE CULTURAL HERITAGE OF HUMANITY

The Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture of Ghana presents our compliments.

The National Folklore Board, an Agency under this Ministry mandated by the Copyright Act, 2005 (Act 690) to administer, register, promote, and protect Ghanaian expressions of folklore on behalf of the Nation has prepared a dossier nominating Ghana's Kente to be inscribed on the UNESCO Representative list of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

It is the belief of this Ministry, that this initiative will help Ghana safeguard Kente as the nation's intangible cultural heritage at the international level, as well as significantly highlight the worth of Ghana's Kente to the world over.

The Ministry is by this letter, declaring our consent and support for the nomination of Kente craftsmanship in Ghana to be enlisted by UNESCO as an intangible cultural heritage of Humanity.

We count on your favourable consideration in this matter.

Dear Sir/Madam

LETTER OF CONSENT

The National Folklore Board is a statutory body under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture responsible for the administration, registration, and safeguarding of expressions of Ghanaian Folklore.

The art of making traditional Kente textile is a unique part of the Akan and Ewe speaking communities which is associated with royalty and to a larger extent recognized as the national textile of Ghana

The National Folklore Board, endorses the enlistment of Kente production in Ghana on UNESCO representative list of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Thank you

BERNICE ANN DEH - KUMAH (MRS.)
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

NATIONAL COMMISSION ON CULTURE
CONSENT NOTE ON KENTE CLOTH

The National Commission on Culture consents to the inscription of kente cloth on the UNESCO's List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

The kente cloth is a hand woven textile in various communities in the Ashanti and Volta Regions of Ghana.

The Commission humbly supports the nomination of the kente cloth by the National Folklore Board to be enlisted as an intangible cultural heritage.

CONSENT NOTE

This is to declare and tender in my endorsement to UNESCO to use Asante Kente to be inscribed on UNESCO Representative of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Bonwire and Adanwomase historically are the most notable Kente weaving towns in Ashanti Region. For over four (4) Centuries the two communities have been engaged in the special artistic works as their main source of livelihood.

The huge patronage that Asante Kente enjoys locally and internationally coupled with its philosophical and ethical values has further given the rich Asante Kente Fabric global brand and acceptance. This is buttressed by the adoption and usage of the Kente designs by corporate bodies and organisations globally as logos/symbolic.

I, therefore, give my consent and assent to Bonwire and Adanwomase Kente Centres of the Ashanti Region for their works to be incorporated by UNESCO.

The following persons referred for further input,
Messrs Eric Kwirong - 0244378599, Frank Sarpong 0244710310,
Eric Oduro - 0245094314 and Eric Kwame Boskye 0555028259.
The rest are Messrs Oberg Reprah - 0244869949 and Philip Bimpong 0241208832.

They are the Executive members of Kente Weavers Associations of Bonwire and Adanwomase Communities.

ENDORSEMENT OF KENTE ICH ENLISTING PROJECT

The Ghana Culture Forum, the largest cultural advocacy network and umbrella body for cultural practitioners, wishes to endorse Ghana's application to UNESCO to enlist the Kente textile as World Intangible Cultural Heritage.

The kente textile and its associated story about its origin are deeply rooted in Ghana's folklore. We are happy to note that this unique textile from Ghana is gaining a global reputation in academia as it is becoming ubiquitous for graduation stoles/sashes. We congratulate the National Folklore Board for this initiative and fully support the application.

We look forward to the application results. Kindly keep us posted.

Yours sincerely,
